Monday, October 30 • Depart

Our adventure in Bella Italia begins with our trans-Atlantic flight to Milan.

Tuesday, October 31 • Milan

Upon our arrival in Milan, we meet our coach and tour guide and transfer to the center of Milan. After time for lunch on our own, we join a local guide for a walking tour of Milan, including the iconic Duomo, Galleria Vittorio Emanuele II, and much more. Before checking in to our hotel, we visit Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece, The Last Supper. D

Wednesday, November 1 • Venice Mestre

After breakfast, we transfer to Lake Garda, the largest of the beautiful Italian Lakes. Our lunch stop is in Sirmione, a delightful little village complete with its own castle situated on a peninsula on the southern shore of the lake. After time for lunch on our own, we continue to our destination, fabulous Venice. B/D

Thursday, November 2 • Venice Mestre

We begin our full-day visit to Venice with a private boat transfer along the Grand Canal to St. Mark's Square. Here, a local guide joins us to introduce us to the city's history as we admire the impressive St. Mark's Cathedral and Bell Tower, and much more. The afternoon is free for exploration of Venice's canals, bridges, and Islands. There are cafés around the Rialto Bridge for those who prefer people-watching other options include shopping or a gondola ride. In the late afternoon, we have a private boat transfer back to our bus, and then on to our hotel. B/D

Friday, November 3 • Florence

After a leisurely breakfast, we depart Venice and drive southward through the Emilia-Romagna region to Tuscany, considered by many to be the romantic heart of old Italy. In the early afternoon, we visit a family-run estate in the hills outside of Florence, once owned by the powerful Medici family. Our visit to Castello del Trebbio includes a tour of the 12th-century castle grounds and a guided tasting of four wines produced by the estate, along with some Tuscan snacks. B/D

Saturday, November 4 • Florence

Our entire day is devoted to exploring Florence, the Cradle of the Renaissance and home to the world's third-largest cathedral, the Santa Maria del Fiori with its famed Baptistery and Giotto's Tower, as well as the Accademia Museum, and the Uffizi Gallery with one of the finest collection of paintings in all of Italy. In the morning we enjoy a locally-guided walking tour of the city, including a visit to the Uffizi and Santa Croce Church, where Galileo is buried. The afternoon is at leisure to explore the sprawling San Lorenzo Leather Market, the shops along the Ponte Vecchio, or perhaps a visit to the Accademia to visit David. B/D

Sunday, November 5 • Florence

Today we explore the Cinque Terre, five charming villages nestled into the cliffs along the Ligurian Sea. We begin our visit to La Spezia as we travel by train that takes us through a few of the villages. Once in La Spezia, we enjoy time to stroll along the quaint streets and admire the panoramic views. On our way back to Florence, we stop in Lucca, another gem of Italian Renaissance architecture, including the intriguing Torre Guinigi, a tower easily recognized by the trees growing on top of it. B/D

Monday, November 6 • Assisi

After breakfast, we drive southward through southern Tuscany, where we first visit San Gimignano with its thirteen towers, it is the most famous of the Tuscan hilltop towns. There is ample time to explore the town and its interesting shops before continuing to lovely Siena. A locally guided walking tour of this fabulous Gothic city will acquaint us with its sunken Piazza del Campo and the Duomo, perhaps the finest Gothic cathedral in all of Italy! Siena's development was halted at the end of the Middle Ages, making it a truly remarkable medieval city. After some time to explore we continue to Assisi, where we check in at our hotel with time to explore before dinner. B/D

Tuesday, November 7 • Rome

Our first destination today is Orvieto, a hilltop town in Umbria that can trace its history back to the Etruscans. Much of the medieval city was built above Etruscan caves! After taking the funicular from the parking lot to the center of town, we enjoy free time for lunch on our own. In the afternoon, we continue to Rome, our home for the next four nights. B/D

Wednesday, November 8 • Rome

This morning, we have the choice to either attend the Pope's weekly General Audience at St. Peter's Square in the Vatican or enjoy a leisurely morning of shopping and strolling through Rome's streets and piazzas. After lunch, we meet our local guide again for a guided tour of Vatican City, including the stunning Sistine Chapel and the Vatican Museums. B/D

Thursday, November 9 • Rome

After breakfast, a local guide joins us for a walking tour of Ancient Rome, introducing us to the impressive history of the city. During our tour, we enter the Colosseum, where we can imagine gladiator fights and games and thousands of cheering Romans. As we continue, we see the Forum, the main commercial center of Ancient Rome. We enjoy the afternoon at leisure – a perfect time to throw a coin in the Trevi Fountain or admire the Spanish Steps. B/D

Friday, November 10 • Rome

Our final day in Italy begins with an excursion to Ostia Antica, Ancient Rome's seaport, now located approximately two miles inland. The archeological site at Ostia Antica is only partially excavated, however, the excavated parts include mosaics, villas, a marketplace, roads, and more. We return to Rome in the afternoon and enjoy time for last-minute shopping, museum visits, or people-watching at one of Rome's many cafes. Tonight, we are entertained by local singers and musicians as we dine in the former Baths of the Colosseum. B/D

Saturday, November 11 • Return

Our time in Italy ends this morning as we transfer to the Rome Fiumicino International Airport for our return flights to the United States. B

APPLICANT _____

A DEVIATION is a customized return date on the air-portion of your tour.

- Deviation requests must be received in writing no later than 120 days prior to departure. Requests are processed on a first come, first served basis and participants are encouraged to submit requests as early as possible.
- Submitting a deviation request does not guarantee availability. All deviation requests are subject to the governing airline’s rules and regulations regarding group air contracts. An airline may limit or deny a passenger’s request to deviate from the group’s flight itinerary.
- A representative from CETA Tours will contact you regarding the cost and flight schedule for your requested deviation. At that time, you may chose to confirm the deviation or cancel your request.
- All confirmed deviations will be assessed a $150 processing fee per passenger in addition to any airline imposed fees or surcharges.
- Once a deviation has been confirmed, it is non-refundable and non-transferable. Any further request to modify the deviation itinerary will be considered a new request and will result in an additional $150 fee plus any further airline imposed charges. All deviation fees will be added to the participant’s invoice.
- Some deviation requests may require the purchase of an individual ticket. Individual tickets are non-refundable and full-payment is due at the time of purchase. This is in addition to normally scheduled payments to CETA Tours.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transportation or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group.

A LAND-ONLY package is when a traveler elects to make all of their own air arrangements.

- The traveler is responsible for notifying the group organizer that they will be arranging their own air transportation separate from the tour group and for providing the organizer with an up-to-date copy of their flight schedule.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transfers or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group. Additionally, it is the traveler’s responsibility to arrange to meet up with the tour; the tour group will not wait at the airport for travelers arriving separately from the group.
- Once a land-only traveler has secured their own air arrangements, they must submit a confirmed copy of the flight schedule in writing to CETA Tours. Only when CETA has received this information will future invoices reflect the reduced land-only tour cost.

I WOULD LIKE TO REQUEST A LAND-ONLY PACKAGE

I wish to deviate from the tour operated by CETA Tours as indicated above. I acknowledge that CETA is not responsible or liable for me outside of the documented tour itinerary. I understand that if I've requested a land-only package, all air arrangements are my responsibility. I understand that if I confirm a deviation, all accommodation and transportation arrangements outside of the documented tour itinerary are my responsibility.
