SEPTEMBER 15–28, 2025

Porto ♦ Nazaré ♦ Évora ♦ Lagos ♦ Lisbon

Monday, September 15 • Depart

We depart on our scheduled flights to Porto, Portugal.

Tuesday, September 16 • Porto

Upon our arrival in Porto, we meet our coach and driver and transfer to the city center. We drop off our luggage at our hotel and welcome the opportunity to stretch our legs as we get to know the area near our hotel. Our sightseeing includes a stroll along Aliados Avenue in the heart of Porto and plenty of time to explore the Mercado do Bolhão, Porto's traditional open-air market. Opened in 1837, this historic icon was recently restored and is the perfect place to sample a variety of produce, meats, fish, cheeses, and wine. There are also souvenir shops and restaurants. We have time to relax before dinner. D

Wednesday, September 17 • Porto

Porto is one of the oldest cities in Europe. Its historic center, the Luis I Bridge, and the Monastery of Serra do Pilar are all UNESCO World Heritage Sites. We see all these sights and more this morning as we carefully navigate the maze of hills on a locally guided walking tour. We have time for exploration and lunch on our own after the tour. Porto is also famous for its production of fine port wine. In the late afternoon, we visit a port wine cellar, where we learn about this specialty wine and enjoy a few samples. B/D

Thursday, September 18 • Porto

We are in for a lovely day on a full-day excursion with a local guide to the Douro Valley, another UNESCO World Heritage Site. On our scenic drive, our guide explains the history and importance of the area. We visit two different Quintas (wineries) for tours and tastings at each and lunch at one. Finally, we enjoy a leisurely Rabelo boat ride on the Douro River before returning to Porto. Dinner is on our own. So if the weather cooperates, those who wish can enjoy a spectacular view of the sunset over the River Douro. B/L

Friday, September 19 • Nazaré

Departing Porto, we travel to Coimbra, a well-preserved Medieval town with a lovely riverfront. Here we meet our local guide who shows this historic former capital. We visit the University of Coimbra built on the site of the former Royal Palace and the Joanina Library one of Europe's finest surviving Baroque libraries. We may even see students wearing the school's traditional black capes. Our tour ends in the heart of the old town where we have time for lunch before taking in a traditional Fado performance. Finally, we travel to the beach town of Nazaré. It is an important fishing village and has recently become known for big wave tow-in surfing. B/D

Saturday, September 20 • Nazaré

After breakfast, we travel to Tomar for a guided tour of the nearby Convento de Cristo, founded by the Knights of Templar in 1160. Built over five centuries its multi-architectural styles include Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque. One of its most notable features is the 16-sided Templar church called a Charola. After we visit this impressive convent, we take a short tour of Tomar followed by time for lunch and sightseeing on our own. We return to Nazaré to relax or explore the town. B/D

Sunday, September 21 • Évora

We take a short drive to tour the Mosteiro Alcobaça, another architectural masterpiece. It is the first and largest Gothic structure in Portugal and a fine example of Cistercian architecture. It is also the burial site of the forbidden lovers King Pedro I and Inês Castro whose story has been embedded in Portuguese culture. We spend part of the afternoon in nearby Obidos, a well-preserved Medieval town. We explore the car-free cobblestone streets and quaint shops. Those brave enough can walk along the castle wall surrounding the town for a bird's eye view of the town and the nearby aqueduct. In the mid-afternoon, we travel to Évora arriving in time to relax a bit before dinner. B/D

Monday, September 22 • Évora

Our morning starts with a guided tour of Évora, a city with a rich history dating back to the Romans. Our tour includes the beautiful town square, the Roman Temple, the Cathedral, and the Chapel of Bones. We take a break to have lunch and explore on our own. Later we take a short excursion to visit a cork factory. B/D

Tuesday, September 23 • Lagos

Departing Évora today, we travel south to the Algarve where we stop in Tavira, a city with a mix of Roman, Arab, and Christian influences. The Moorish influence of whitewashed buildings, Moorish-styled doors and rooftops, and the Tavira Castle remains from their occupation from the 8th to the 13th centuries. There is time to explore the hilly, cobblestone streets, shop, and have lunch before continuing on to Lagos, our home for the next two nights. B/D

Wednesday, September 24 • Lagos

After a leisurely breakfast, we enjoy a very scenic boat ride on the turquoise waters along the coast to see Ponta da Piedade, the weathered limestone cliffs that have been carved into sea arches and hidden caves. We also pass by the many beautiful beaches that dot the area. After our boat tour, the rest of the day is ours to enjoy. We may want to explore the old town of Lagos, take a stroll along the boardwalk, relax at the beach, or go for a swim. B/D

Thursday, September 25 • Lisbon

We leave the Algarve and travel north to Lisbon, Portugal's capital and our final destination. We have time for lunch upon our arrival and spend the afternoon with a local guide to visit the Mosteiro dos Jerónimos, a magnificent 16th Century monastery built in a distinctly Portuguese style of architecture, and the monument to the Age of Discovery as well as the Torre de Belém, which was built in 1515 as a lighthouse for ships returning from the New World. B/D

Friday, September 26 • Lisbon

Today features a full-day excursion with a local guide to Sintra, another UNESCO World Heritage site. With its stunning granite slopes and its proximity to the Atlantic Ocean, Sintra has been used for centuries by wealthy Lisboans as an escape from the oppressive summer heat of the city. Our first stop is at the top of the highest peak of Sera Mountain for a tour of Pena Palace and its fantastic park. We take a break to discover the charms of Sintra Vila, the Old Town, and have lunch. Then we visit the Palácio Nacional de Sintra, in the heart of this Old Quarter. We return to Lisbon in the late afternoon. B/D

Saturday, September 27 • Lisbon

Our final day in Portugal starts with a locally guided walking tour in the morning to learn more about Europe's second-oldest capital, including the impact of the earthquake of 1755. Our guide navigates us through this hilly city (with the help of an escalator and elevator) as we see sights such as Rossio Square, the historic maze of the Alfama District, the elegant Chiado Neighborhood, the Elevador de Santa Justa and the Praça de Comércio. We have the afternoon free for other sightseeing and last-minute shopping before we gather to enjoy our final dinner together. B/D

Sunday, September 28 • Return

After breakfast, we transfer to the Lisbon airport for our return flight to the United States. B

- Some deviation requests are not possible within certain group air contracts. In those instances, participants must purchase their own airfare and a Land Only package from CETA Tours.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transportation or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group.

A LAND-ONLY package is when a traveler elects to make all of their own air arrangements.

- The traveler is responsible for notifying the group organizer that they will be arranging their own air transportation separate from the tour group and for providing the organizer with an up-to-date copy of their flight schedule.
- CETA Tours is not responsible for providing accommodations, airport transfers or any other tour arrangements for passengers while traveling separately from the group. Additionally, it is the traveler’s responsibility to arrange to meet up with the tour; the tour group will not wait at the airport for travelers arriving separately from the group.
- Once a land-only traveler has secured their own air arrangements, they must submit a confirmed copy of the flight schedule in writing to CETA Tours. Only when CETA has received this information will future invoices reflect the reduced land-only tour cost.

I WOULD LIKE TO REQUEST A LAND-ONLY PACKAGE

I wish to deviate from the tour operated by CETA Tours as indicated above. I acknowledge that CETA is not responsible or liable for me outside of the documented tour itinerary. I understand that if I've requested a land-only package, all air arrangements are my responsibility. I understand that if I confirm a deviation, all accommodation and transportation arrangements outside of the documented tour itinerary are my responsibility.
